Rogerson Communities Invites Public for Clothing Drive, Cookies & Coffee First in a series of six local events

ROSLINDALE, MA –Roslindale House will host a clothing drive, coupled a with coffee and cookie reception, on Friday, January 22nd from 2 to 3:30 PM at 120 Poplar Street. This special event, free and open to the public, will kick off a series of six events in different Boston neighborhoods designed to welcome the public into Rogerson residences in this, its 150th anniversary year.

Rogerson welcomes the public to enjoy free coffee and cookies, and to bring unwanted new or used clothing and coats to benefit the Big Brother, Big Sister Foundation.

“This year is Rogerson’s 150th anniversary, and Roslindale House and Florence House residents wanted to do something to help mark the occasion. Celebrating this milestone with our residents and surrounding communities is a great way to bring people together to emphasize Rogerson’s mission,” says Daryl Ramdehal, Property Manager of Rogerson Communities’ Roslindale House and Florence House. “We’re really hoping people will join us for the clothing drive, and for some cookies, coffee and conversation.”

Rogerson Communities, celebrating 150 years of innovative housing and healthcare solutions, is a leader in building and managing affordable housing for low-income elders and a pioneer in creating innovative adult day health programs offering fitness and strength training, meals, memory loss care and treatment, and social activities so that elders can continue to live independently.
