ROGERSON HOUSE WELCOMES NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Rogerson Communities is pleased to welcome Betsy Ross as the new Executive Director of Rogerson House, a residential and day program facility for people with memory loss and dementia. Ross comes to Rogerson with more than 15 years experience in elder and hospice care and with extensive educational and professional knowledge. Ross is a resident of Brookline, Massachusetts.

Rogerson Communities has been providing housing and health care for elders and low-income individuals and families since it was founded in 1860. Today, the non-profit organization serves more than 1,500 Greater Boston families through 26 facilities and programs. These services include housing, adult day health programs, fitness training and memory loss care and treatment. Visit Rogerson.org for more information.
