ROGERSON COMMUNITIES CELEBRATES PROMOTION AND AWARD RECIPIENT

Rogerson Communities would like to announce that Director of Housing Management Heather Orodenker recently received MassAging's prestigious Outstanding Mentor Award for her development of Rogerson staff. Orodenker is a resident of East Greenwich, Rhode Island.

Additionally, Rogerson welcomes Michele Keefe in her new role as Assistant Director of Senior Living. Keefe will be serving as a liaison between Rogerson Communities and Hale Barnard Services as part of a three year management contract with the organization. Keefe is a resident of Franklin, Massachusetts.

Rogerson Communities has been providing housing and health care for elders and low-income individuals and families since it was founded in 1860. Today, the non-profit organization serves more than 1,500 Greater Boston families through 26 facilities and programs. These services include housing, adult day health programs, fitness training and memory loss care and treatment. Visit Rogerson.org for more information.
