

Boston Business Journal

February 15-21, 2008 Vol. 28, No. 3

State Street backs Chinatown project ▶

State Street Corp. recently donated $1 million to support the development of an affordable-housing apartment complex in Chinatown. Rogerson Communities is building in partnership with Greater Boston Chinese Golden Age Center/On Luck Housing Development.

From left, George Russell, executive vice president and head of community affairs at State Street; Ruth Moy, executive director of Greater Boston Golden Age Center; James Seagle Jr., president of Rogerson Communities; and Anne Morton Smith, director of development at Rogerson Communities.

